

Nationals FFC announces Bruce Mapp, Four Time Gold Medalist, as Director of Coaching, Boys Programming

Frisco, TX (Oct. 7, 2024) – Today, premier competitive youth flag football club, Nationals FFC, announced Bruce Mapp as Director of Coaching, Boys Programming.

Mapp has been a member of USA Football’s U.S. Men’s Flag National Team since 2021, winning gold medals at the 2021 IFAF World Championship in Jerusalem, Israel, The World Games 2022 in Birmingham, Ala., the 2023 IFAF Americas Championships in Charlotte, N.C., and the 2024 IFAF World Championship in Finland.

“Bruce has proven leadership on the playing field, and we’re thrilled that he is bringing those leadership qualities and his flag football acumen to Nationals FFC,” stated Monty Holloway, President Nationals FFC. “With the addition of Bruce, we’ll be able to implement our training philosophies at the highest level and prepare our young athletes to excel both on and off the field.”

In collaboration with the Technical Director, Dr. Christopher Khoury, Mr. Mapp works closely with Division Directors and coaches to ensure each NFFC player receives advanced, consistent development across the organization. This unified approach creates a consistent approach to player development, leveraging their combined expertise to elevate the club's training standards. By aligning coaching methodologies and technical skills, Nationals FFC maintains a competitive edge in youth flag football development.

“There’s nothing more exciting than watching kids fall in love with flag football.” stated Mapp. “With Nationals FFC, we’re going to encourage their love of the sport while preparing our youth athletes for next level competition.”

Nationals FFC launched in July 2024 and will open locations in Frisco, Denton, and Mt. Pleasant, Texas for its inaugural Fall 2024 season. Visit www.nationalsffc.com for more information.
